Counter-Strike is a legendary tactical first-person shooter franchise where terrorists and counter-terrorists fight in objective-based rounds. The most famous and defining titles in the series include: Wikipedia +2

- Counter-Strike 1.6: The iconic classic that popularized competitive LAN culture and modern map callouts like Dust II.
- Counter-Strike: Global Offensive (CS:GO): The 2012 release that drove a massive global esports boom.
- Counter-Strike 2 (CS2): The modern Source 2 engine upgrade that replaced CS:GO with improved tick rates and graphics. Wikipedia +3

Core Gameplay

- Teams: Players join either the Terrorists or Counter-Terrorists.
- Objectives: Terrorists plant a bomb or guard hostages; Counter-Terrorists stop them or rescue hostages.
- Economy: Earn in-game cash per round to buy better guns, armor, and utility grenades.
- Precision: Success relies heavily on accurate crosshair placement, map knowledge, and team communication.
